2. Sport Director Responsibilities

- 2.1. Each NCISAA Sport Director is a member of the Board of Advisors and is charged with overseeing the administration of his/her assigned sport. The Sport Manager is expected to:
 - 2.1.1. Serve as a resource person for issues or concerns which might arise during the regular season and attend coaches meetings if possible.
 - 2.1.2. Serve as liaison between the Sport Chairs, the NCISAA Office and the Board of Advisors. Keep the NCISAA Office informed of any potential problems that might arise during the tournaments.

- 2.1.3. Assist the Sport Chair/Site Director with selection of the tournament site and the organization of the tournament. Keep lines of communication open with the Sport Chair during the process of planning the tournament. The list of tournament rules and host guidelines should be reviewed.
- 2.1.4. Review the preliminary tournament expense budget with Sport Chairs/Site Directors to ensure that the expenses are those approved by the NCISAA. After the event, the Tournament Expense and Income report is sent to the NCISAA Office within 10 school days following the tournament.
- 2.1.5. Have knowledge and understanding of directives in the sport-specific section of the Handbook and the general rules of the sport.
- 2.1.6. Prior to the summer board meeting, recommend to the Board of Advisors a Sport Chair for each classification for the sport you manage.
- 2.1.7. Be responsible for obtaining and submitting all pertinent information as well as additions and corrections relative to each sport to the NCISAA Office before the summer meeting.

3. Sport Chair/Site Director Responsibilities

- 3.1. Some sports require a separate Sport Chair and Site Director, but in some cases a single individual serves both positions. These guidelines are intended to clarify and facilitate their shared responsibilities.
 - 3.1.1. Determine and organize the playoff site(s). Consult with the Sport Manager to determine game times other than those listed in the Handbook.
 - 3.1.2. Send a preliminary budget of tournament expenses to the Sport Manager for review.
 - 3.1.3. Chair the seeding/selection committee. Ensure that all seeding committee members are informed well in advance of the meeting, are aware of their responsibilities, and are prepared to have all necessary information at the time of the meeting.
 - 3.1.4. Ensure that all playoff information (hotels, directions, etc) is electronically distributed well in advance of the tournament date.
 - 3.1.5. Read and follow the appropriate Handbook sections including the sportsmanship code, regular season & tournament rules and regulations, tournament procedures, site standards, and sport specific regulations. Assist with the production of a tournament program when appropriate.
 - 3.1.6. Provide the necessary support staff.
 - 3.1.7. Cooperate with the host school in handling disputes, problems, inquiries, and administration of penalties during the playoffs.
 - 3.1.8. Report (text or call) results and scores to Susan Steadman (336.414.3637) or Chappell Carter (828.231.4254) as soon as possible at the conclusion of the game. Please include the name of both teams and exact scores.
 - 3.1.9. Oversee the presentation of awards at the conclusion of the tournament event.
 - 3.1.10. Sport Chairs and Site Directors should be present at all tournament events for their given sport.
 - 3.1.11. Send a copy of the Tournament Income and Expense report to the NCISAA Office within 10 school days following the playoffs.
