NCISAA Signs Multi-Year Partnership with OrthoCarolina

CHARLOTTE, NC (FEBRUARY 20, 2020)—The North Carolina Independent Schools Association (NCISAA) has signed a multi-year partnership with OrthoCarolina to become the Official Orthopedic Care Provider of the NCISAA. The comprehensive partnership will include an integrated marketing presence throughout the year enabling OrthoCarolina to connect with and support the students, staff and fans of the NCISAA member schools. OrthoCarolina will also be the presenting sponsor of several NCISAA events including this year's Basketball Championships.

"The NCISAA is honored to partner with OrthoCarolina, one of the nation's leading orthopedic practices and service providers to our member schools," said NCISAA Executive Director Homar Ramirez. "It is exciting to have OrthoCarolina be an integral part of our championships and the further development of Sports Medicine in our Association. We are grateful to partner with an organization that is fully devoted to the well-being of our student-athletes."

The 2020 NCISAA Basketball Championships presented by OrthoCarolina will be played on February 21-22 in Charlotte, NC. Over the two days, there will be 24 games played at six venues with eight state championships being awarded.

"OrthoCarolina is honored to partner with the NCISAA and help make this wonderful event not only happen for our community but be better than ever before" said Blair Primis, OrthoCarolina's senior vice president of marketing and talent development. "We are looking forward to being part of the excitement and cannot wait to see how 2020 unfolds for all the teams and schools."
